

The Lowdown On Las Vegas Night Clubs & Night Life

Las Vegas night life and night clubs are thriving. Whether you are into throbbing dance clubs, looking for night clubs for a romantic tryst or simply the best places to watch people, Vegas has you fully catered for.

Throbbing night clubs can be found at nearly every hotel/casino. One of the most popular is of course Studio 54 at MGM Grand. This hot spot is based entirely on the New York club of the same name.

Across the road from Studio 54 you will find RA at the Luxor which carries on its Egyptian theme inside.

One of the most popular night clubs is Rain night club at Palms. If you are in the mood to see a lot of bronzed and toned men and women in bikinis check out Bikinis at The Rio. The newest wave of night club entertainment is lounges, something between a bar and a dance club. The Tabu at MGM Grand has models working as hostesses. Risque, Paris, has private balconies looking out over the gorgeous strip. Whiskey Bar and Whiskey Beach at the Green Valley Ranch resort are the brainchild of Cindy Crawford's husband. The view at Mix at Mandalay Bay is absolutely breathtaking with floor to ceiling windows overlooking Luxor. At Pure night club at Caesars Palace you can feel really relaxed on overstuffed bed seating. At Lure night club, Wynn, there's actually no dance floor as the focus is on relaxing in elegant chairs and lingering at tables.

The winner of the best conversation bar for 2006 is V Bar, the Venetian Resort Hotel Casino. The winner of the best dive bar for 2006 is The Tap House, Off Strip, 5589 West Charleston Blvd. The winner of the best Las Vegas gay bar for 2006 is Krave, Aladdin Resort & Casino, 3663 Las Vegas Blvd S. The winner of the best Las Vegas late night dancing for 2006 is Mr Lucky's, Hard Rock Hotel & Casino, 4455 Paradise Road.

If your interest is people watching then try Mandalay Bay's Ivan Kane's Forty Deuce. If you are looking for the rich and famous check out Paradise Road's Gordon Biersch Brewing Company. Coyote Ugly at New York New York is a real-life version of Coyote Ugly the movie, and The Beach and Bikinis are the best places to slim guests wearing hardly anything.

The strip clubs are pulling out all stops nowadays to get you into the door and spending money for a few hours. Club Paradise promotes the fact that several of the girls are centrefolds for both Playboy and Penthouse magazines. Jaguars is a $25 million club with a restaurant, stages and several bars. At Cheetahs the girls are very energetic. In fact, the movie 'Showgirls' was actually researched and filmed at that location. The Girls Of Glitter Gulch is downtown.
