

Easy Guide to Coffee Wedding Favors

Planning a wedding and want a unique wedding favor to send home with your guests? Coffee wedding favors are a very popular and unique item that will be used with joy. Don't get something that will just sit on a shelf and collect dust or worse yet get put in the back closet and your guests home. By giving a wedding coffee favor you can ensure that you are giving your guests something they will use. Not only will they enjoy using the gift they will enjoy thinking about the wonderful memories and fun times they had at the wedding as they sip their wonderful full bodied flavorful coffee.

Well, if you are already sold on coffee wedding favors then you will want to read through this article for some easy ideas to really make unique and outstanding wedding favors.

Coffee- This is the obvious place to start as it will be the central theme to your wedding favor. You should try and plan the theme of the wedding first and then select a coffee that goes along with that theme. For example an easy one would be if you are getting married in Maui or even having a Hawaiian theme wedding you will want to use Kona Coffee in your wedding favor basket. If you have not yet selected a theme for the wedding another thing you can do is look for a local coffee roaster and purchase from them. This will give you guests a little taste of the local area and it supports your local businesses also. Of course if neither of these easily fit into your wedding and still do not strike an idea for you a third option would be to choose your own favorite flavor of coffee. Do you love a certain blend at your local coffee shop or maybe something fancy from Starbucks? Well, choose this as your coffee. As forethought you might want to purchase both regular caffeinated coffee and some decaffeinated.

Next you will want to add some personal touches and make the coffee wedding favor really stand out. There are so many ways to do this but we will give you just a few. These are mostly just to spark ideas for you that you will hopefully use and alter or personalize to suit your own needs.

Coffee Packaging - If at all possible it is a very classy to personalize the favors. You can print a computer label or purchase from a shop that will do this for you. Putting things like the Bride and Groom's Name, date and location of the wedding can be a nice touch. IF you are doing this yourself adding in the guests name can also be a lot of fun. To easily make a label you can look around online for free clip art and then just customize it with your own colors and writing.

Mugs - If you would like to round out the coffee wedding favor and expand from the basics a little bit more purchasing coffee mugs can be a quick and easy edition. You can easily purchase customized mugs to any color you would like. You can also add a picture easily to custom mugs and have the bride and groom smiling at everyone as they drink their coffee wedding favor.

Stir Spoons - But a large bunch of plastic spoons and dip them into melted chocolate. Then wrap these spoons with tulle and add a beautiful ribbon that matches the colors of the wedding. Now you are taking the gift from a oh! Nice to a WOW level.

Chocolate Covered Coffee Beans - Another fun addition can be a personalized bag of chocolate covered coffee beans. These can easily be purchased in bulk and then put into a tin or bag and customized with a quick label on the computer.

Chocolates - There are not many coffee drinkers in the world that would turn down a wonderful elegant chocolate in addition to their coffee. You do not need to place too many chocolates in with the coffee but a few high quality chocolates nicely wrapped with a ribbon can go a long way to add class.

Hot Chocolate - Have a lot of guests with young children coming to the wedding? If so you might want to include some fun hot chocolate with the favor and this way the children can join in on the fun also!

Teas - If you are worried about those non-coffee drinkers out there are there are always a few you can appease this crowd by placing a nice tea or some tea bags in with the gift.

Chocolate covered almonds - Chocolate covered almonds can be purchased in bulk in a wide variety of colors and finding one that matches the colors of the wedding and again making tins of them can be a fun addition to the coffee wedding favor.

As you can see coffee wedding favors are a great ideas that can become very creative by adding a few simple touches of class to them. Hopefully the ideas above will spark something for you and you will be off and working on creating your own custom wedding favor. Just think about all the people who the morning after the wedding will wake up and enjoy the wonderful coffee wedding favor you have so lovingly prepared for them.
