

Bellapais Northern Cyprus

The Village of Bellapais takes great pride in its ability to remain quality and enchanting throughout the many years and periods of its existence. Many people choose to visit this Northern Cyprus area for many reasons, such as its timeless beauty, culture, and simplicity. Bellapais holiday village was made famous as a reference in a book authored by Lawrence Durrell, titled Bitter Lemons. Bellapais is also home to Bellapais Abbey, a prominent gothic building of the times.

Of course, taking a holiday in Bellapais is something many people choose to do and it is easy to see why. There are several the Mediterranean village and some of its fabulous cuisines. No matter your tastes you can find it in Bellapais or nearby villages. The Ali Pasha Taverna, specializes in Cypriot, English, and Turkish foods, with enticingly affordable drinks, and belly dancing to enjoy the culture.

Of course, you might want to take part in some historical site seeing such as The Anthipanis Church, The Bellapais Monastery, The St. Hilarion castle, or the Kyrenia Castle, or many of the famous historical sites in the area.

The beautiful country side is not without equally beautiful resorts and hotels. While visiting Bellapais, you might want to consider staying at the Bellapais Gardens Hotel, located just four miles from Kyrenia and four miles from the beach. In this beautiful hotel, you will have the opportunity to experience decades of Cyprus, all while enjoying the luxuries of home. Each room comes completely with a mini-bar, satellite television, air conditioning, hair dryer, safe, and a private balcony or terrace.

The hotel offers a pool bar, swimming in a freshwater pool, weekly cuisine night, room service, and a cliff-top lounge and restaurant overlooking the exotic scenery.

Another fabulous place to stay is the Bellapais Monastery Village Hotel. This hotel takes great pride in being one of Kyrenia's premier hotel and is located a short distance from Bellapais Abbey and Bellapais Village, situated supremely amongst the Five Finger Mountain range foothills.

Bellapais Monastery Village Hotel offers sixteen deluxe rooms, each equipped with electronic locking on the doors, a fitted shower, hair dryer, air conditioning, coffee, and tea making facilities, telephone, mini bar, and satellite television. Forty-five mini villas are also available carrying the same amenities. As a guest at the Bellapais Monastery Villega Hotel, you will have the opportunity to relax and keep cool with two swimming pools, a fitness center, sun beds, and a pool bar. The restaurant and bar is a perfect place to relax and enjoy the atmosphere, as well as the delicious cuisine of the island.

Of course, no vacation is a vacation unless you have some fun and relaxation. Make sure you take some time for yourself and enjoy all of the sites and beauty Bellapais has to offer. Enjoy activities that you would not otherwise have the opportunity to enjoy. Discover rich history, filled with stories of the yesteryear.

Between the historic relationships, the beautiful countryside, and the fabulous, luxurious hotels, you will find yourself never wanting to leave. Never fear, you can always come back for your next vacation.

Source: <http://www.articlecircle.com>

About the Author

At <http://www.cyprusparadise.co.uk> find the best deals on holidays to Northern Cyprus, the lowest possible prices for flights to North Cyprus and a wide choice of late availability breaks and offers! Book now and savings can amount to over ?960 per couple!