

Cyprus...The Land of Love

There are so many vacations you can take within the world today but there are some places more suited for couples who want to not only explore their attraction for each other but explore an island founded on love itself.

Cyprus is not only the third largest island in the Mediterranean it is also the fabled birthplace of Aphrodite the goddess of love. Throughout the ages travelers have stopped in Cyprus to experience the awe and wonder of its timeless beauty and mystique. It offers ancient castle ruins and many other archeological wonders as well as the enchantment of its hot springs and coves. The beauty is unspeakable and the intrigue will remain within you for a lifetime.

As a perfect spot for honeymoons, the island of Cyprus offers couples many alone and group activities. Stay in your luxurious hotel room the whole time and take advantage of the island's great hospitality. You can also just admire the view from your window or go out and see the sites. Cyprus is sure to please.

The recent Cyprus island tourist initiative has been improving the island of Cyprus to accommodate travelers from all over the world. They have been building more hotels and attractions for families. There are many different aspects of Cyprus that you can enjoy like a ride through the countryside on bikes or mopeds. You can also spend your time hiking, sailing, snorkeling or swimming. The locals are very friendly and accepting to tourists as well.

Let the crystal clear waters of Cyprus be your next vacation destination and remember to bring your camera. There are breathtaking pictures that will become a priceless part of your collection as you look back on the best time you have ever had in the Mediterranean.

Not only is Cyprus great for couples, but for the singles as well. Singles also visit the island of Cyprus in towns where bars are the main attraction. Once occupied by troops, these singles spots are great for drinking, partying and carousing with locals and of course your travel mates.

As a great vacation spot all year round, people flock to this island for the sites, people and atmosphere. It seems that there is much to discover in Cyprus whether you are single or spoken for, so book a trip to the island and you may become like so many others who choose to visit again and again.
