

How To Create A Great Baby Shower Invitation

If you are planning for a baby shower be it your own, for a family, or friend you want to make sure you set the right theme for it. When selecting a theme make sure you include the right designs to coordinate with the type of theme. For example you'll need to get the name of the expectant parents, location, date and time, contact number and include a map with directions. Be sure to include the theme of the baby shower in all your invitations. This way your guest can dress appropriately and bring themed gifts.

To make your baby shower run smoother you should include an RSVP date. It will help with your planning stage.

When's The Best Time To Send Our Invites?

Usually between three and four weeks before the shower date. In doing so you'll give guest from out of town enough time to plan their trip and take time of work. Keep note that if your guest are coming from another country you may want to give them more time to prepare for their trip.

What types of Invitations Should I Send?

If you have already selected the theme you want then you might want to look for a theme closest to what you have. However if you haven't already selected a theme, there are hundreds of ideas and themes you can find just by searching the internet. You can select from a wide range of colours, shapes, sizes and styles.

One of the latest trends in baby shower themes are printable themes. You can buy printable baby shower themes via the internet for a very low cost. By buying online you can customise your invitations with your own message, designs, colours, size, etc. And it saves your time on shopping around at the department stores.
