

2007 Maserati Quattroporte Automatic

Maserati welcomes you to a world of quality automobiles. It does not matter if you need a classy car, a business car or a sports car; Maserati has them all plus an outstanding number of features that will make your ride fast and enjoyable.

This year the offer is generous. The Quattroporte Automatic is definitely the star of this year. The curves as well as the strength and design of this model will determine you to want this Italian styled car.

The Quattroporte combines a sports car with a luxury car and the result is truly amazing. You can choose the Sports GT version of this model, or you can opt for the Executive GT.

The Sports Quattroporte Automatic comes with sports suspension set up, 20 inches alloy wheels, carbon-fiber interior trim, a cross- drilled disk brakes, sports steering wheel, steering wheel paddles, and an automatic shift lever.

The Executive GT is the ultimate luxury adventure. It offers massage seats for the rear passengers, rear tables for travelers and the maximum comfort for all passengers. This version also features the ball polished 9 spoke 19 inches alloy wheels plus climate control for rear passengers.

Whatever choice you make, Maserati will guarantee the highest quality of all materials and you will have a warrantee of 3 years with unlimited mileage.

The Quattroporte Automatic has six-speed automatic transmission plus you can switch to manual sequential shifting in case you need to, just get into the Sport mode. This gorgeous vehicle is highly luxurious, featuring also the new hydraulic transmission.

The engine of this vehicle is very powerful and it brings a more gradual and progressive power delivery.

The interior of the Quattroporte Automatic is adapted to the most exquisite tastes, with electrically adjusted seats, the Easy Entry system, that will make it easier for you to get in and out of the car.

The automatic bi-zone air-conditioning is part of the deal as well. You will always benefit of the optimal environment due to the airflow distribution pattern.

The windows are manufactured from a special glass that prevents the heat as well as the sunshine from entering, so it is like having huge sunglasses with maximum UV protection that also keeps you cool.

The safety of the Quattroporte is high and adjusted to a speedy vehicle, as the Quattroporte is definitely for speed fans and not only.

For example, if you drive by 100 kilometers per hour, an instant breaking will stop the vehicle in 35,3 meters, which is a remarkably small distance. The car is also endowed with 6 airbags and seatbelts with electronically controlled pyrotechnical pretensions, so you know you are in good hands.

Once you've decided you want such a precious piece, you can personalize it by adding the options that you need to have all the conditions for a pleasant journey.

All in all, the Maserati has prepared an excellent car for you this year. Just check out the Quattroporte Automatic, it will win you over in no time.
