

Women, Listen Up/Physical Daddies and Spiritual Daddies

Women, Listen Up. Ladies, you have more power than hell over the destiny of a man. The devil knew God was going to make woman. He said, I believe that God is going to make a woman, and if I can fool her, she's got enough power to take him in. I can't do it, so I've gotta go to something more powerful than hell; and if she uses it wrong, she'll curse a man, and if she uses it right, she'll take him up.

There is great power in your walk and grace that God has given you, ladies. You are to be a helper-one called to go alongside man and do something that nobody else can do. A man is to bring a woman to her full potential. And you are to do everything possible for your spouse to make him complete in what God said. I'm not telling you not to have a life. I just want you to know what God gave you.

If anybody needs help now, men need help. If we ever needed you before-not to be in competition with, or to fight with-we need you now. We're going to prison, committing suicide... can you help a brother with that power you have? With the beauty and the knowledge that you have? Can you understand that part of me is missing? I'm a little crazy and I need somebody that's got more power than hell.

We're going back to the basics. In order for us to talk about nations and kingdoms, there has to come a peace within each of us. God is saying, I'm serious about men and women lining up with my word. If you line up, healing, deliverance and favor will automatically come-all of those things God has ordained will happen when order hits.

Physical Daddies and Spiritual Daddies:

All of us have been birthed by a physical daddy. A good many of us have been lost because of what happened with the relationship of our physical daddy. There has to be a birthing of a spiritual daddy that brings you into everything God has ordained for you.

We have been stifled in this because instead of operating in the covenant order of God, we are suspicious that someone's trying to take advantage of us. The covenant between the pastor and the congregation is unique. It is not based on a friendship, not exterior performance, but inside. You are in covenant with God because of something inside. It's spiritual. Don't worry about the church being so large that you can't shake the pastor's hand. There are a plenty of folk who can shake your hand, but not too many can speak to your spirit. It is a spiritual covenant. Circumcise yourselves to the Lord, and take away the foreskins of your hearts. (Jeremiah 4:4)

This does not refer to a physical circumcision. When you hear the word of God, you know there are things God is trying to pull from your heart. For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. Therefore I urge you, imitate me. (I Corinthians 4:15-16)

The pastor is but a vessel that God uses to tell you what He has to tell you, to circumcise your flesh, so that you do not continue to carry around the things that are not of God. If you do, and those things are not circumcised, your flesh will get infected. The biggest problem in the church is when God allows the church father (pastor) to come do circumcision, but the congregation does not allow it. Tell me about being blessed but don't tell me to stop fornicating, they say. For God to allow your inheritance and blessings to flow to you, there has to be a circumcision. There needs to be a mark on your spiritual life so that people can tell that you are a son of God.

Understand that there has to be order and covenant. Maintain the spiritual relationship, the order, the covenant, so that you will receive your due inheritance.
